HOUSE TO WRESTLE WITH TAXATION, SENATE TO GRAPPLE WITH PINCHOT RE-ORGANIZATION CODE THIS WEEK

Harrisburg, April 16.—New taxation in the House and the Governor's organization plan in the Senate were expected to be the principal questions for consideration by the legislative officers, as members returned here today for the fourteenth week of the session.

The House adjourned last week in the heat of a debate over taxation. It is thought likely the war of words will resume when the House convenes at nine tonight. Several of the men who were attacked last week are expected to re-open the subject by rising to defend themselves and their ideas at the first opportunity.

The ways and means committee meets tomorrow and many of its members have promised to report out the long awaited tax bill although the Legislature and Governor Pinchot are understood still to be ten million dollars apart on the total as set forth in the budget and necessary appropriations.

Pinchot For New Taxes

Harrisburg, April 16.—Governor Pinchot, in a statement issued here today, declared that the administration favored new taxation. The Governor's statement was in reply to an assertion made in the taxation debate in the House on Thursday that the public believed the Governor would run the state government without additional revenue.

"I have repeatedly pointed out that education requires more money," declared Pinchot today. "If the state does not supply it, the school districts must. The choice is not between some new taxes and no new taxes, but between new state taxes and heavier local taxes. Under these circumstances I am for new state taxes as being the more proper and equitable way to raise the money."

In addition to outlining for the first time the administration policy in regard to new taxes, Pinchot expressed his determined opposition to stretching the payment of the twenty-nine million dollar deficiency over a period of four years instead of clearing it up in two years, as provided in the budget.

Woodland Speeders Pay Fines Into The Borough Treasury

The police have been looking after speed maniacs down in East End the past week and landed a couple of auto drivers the past couple of days for violating the speed laws. Marshal Eschelman, of Woodland, found the hoodoo working Friday 13th and was soaked $12 by Mayor Kittelberger for getting out of town at about 30 miles per hour.

Burton Peters, another rapid lad from out Woodland way, "burned the brick" Saturday night and was also given a chance to enrich the borough treasury $12 for that offense. In attempting to get away from the officers when he saw they were after him Peters stepped on "er, according to the police, and dashing through a gang of dogs crossing the street knocked a big white dog for a string of sausages but never slowed down for a minute.

The speeders are going to have a hard row to hoe around here the coming few weeks.

V. F. W. ACTIVE IN MOVEMENT TO SAVE THE OLD "OLYMPIA"

New York, N. Y., April 16.—An appeal to Congress to save the famous old battle cruiser Olympia, Dewey flagship at the battle of Manila, from the ignominy of the scrap heap is being sponsored by the Stafford-Crisler Post No. 957, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. "Little Falls, New York. The most famous of the naval vessels of the Spanish-American War lies in desolation and abandonment in the lagoon at Philadelphia Navy yard, while other famous ships that have done no more towards making the illustrious history of the American Navy, have been preserved by order of the Government. It is the firm belief of the veterans that the Olympia should be accorded a position of honor alongside "Old Ironsides" of 1812 fame, and the "Hartford" of Farragut.

Ruhr Miners Have Novel Plan They Suggest To Germany

Berlin, April 16.—The Ruhr miners conference, representing all parties in the region, petitioned the German government in a resolution today to publish its entire reparation plan for international discussion.

In this way the entire matter would be placed before the world for consideration.

HUGE MERGER OF GERMAN INDUSTRY IS PLANNED TODAY

Berlin, April 16.—A huge coalition of major German industries, to be the largest in European economic history, is being organized here today by Hugo Stinnes and his associates.

Arrangements have already been made by Stinnes and Birliner Handels Gesellschaft for the merger of the Stinnes-Fustenberg, Otto Wolf and Jacco Goldschmidt interests. The new trust will undertake further efficiency in the development of the upper Silesian Coal, iron and steel regions and other groups are expected to be drawn in as soon as the plan is under development.

"FATHER" A POULAR MAN

"Bringing Up Father" is to be the attraction at the Driggs Theatre this Wednesday evening. Manager Hartman called The Progress this afternoon to say that our chief funny man was quite popular in Clearfield. The seats are going so fast that undoubtedly the house will be sold out long before the time for the curtain to raise. Order your seats tonight if you would be sure to see "Bringing Up Father."

C. H. S. TRACK MEN FULL OF PROMISE; SUCCESSFUL SEASON CERTAIN BECAUSE OF ITS DETERMINATION TO WIN OUT

Hats off to Clearfield High School's track material for 1928! Undaunted by their inexperience, their necessarily late start, and what-not, the fellows are working with a determination and perseverance that must ultimately mean achievement.

For the past two weeks the boys have taken cross-country runs and special drills so designed as to be an aid in developing each man along lines that will enable him better to take on the more rigid later training. In general, the system most used in pre-seasonal conditioning of green track material has been employed, and good results are already in evidence.

This week sees the runners working diligently on starts and sprints, as well as the usual long distance running to develop endurance. The

MOONSHINE AND ITS PEDDLERS GETTING HARD TO FIND

Double Barreled Raid In Moshannon Region Saturday Shows State Is Really Drying Up.

QUANTITIES SMALL

The enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment in Clearfield county is rapidly getting to be much more of a condition than a theory nowadays. In fact it is rapidly coming to such a pass that no honest bootlegger is safe in taking a chance any more. Time was when the bootlegger could confine his sales to his regular trade or the "good roosters" in his home community and be safe from the hated dry sleuth because dead men and moonshine purchasers (many times the same fellows) told no tales. But even all that is changed now, and the money-hungry rum peddler knows that the hour anyone of his many cash customers may throw him down.

Two Clever Sleuths

For some time there has been more than a suspicion of moisture in the Moshannon country extending from Osceola up through Houtdale even as far south as Ramey, always including Atlantic. The dry officers were powerless to get evidence because of the "hang together" policy of "shiner" and customer. Determined to upset the moonshiner and his illegal barrel the authorities got busy and enlisting the services of Jonathan Hutchinson and Johnny Hursel, a couple of well known young men in the Moshannon region, who were employed at No. 27 mine and familiar with local and district conditions. These lads were put to work for law and order and soon dug up evidence enough to warrant a descent on the entire section by a patrol of twelve or fifteen state troopers. The boys worked their stunt pretty slick and explained their absence while out hunting evidence on the ground that they were participants in a movie contest down at Harrisburg earning for themselves the titles of Wally Reid and Bill Hart.

Saturday afternoon was fixed for the raid and the necessity for the movie preparation was shown when, after securing their search warrants on the evidence procured by Hutchinson and Hensel, the police officers raided the different places they found word of their coming had undoubtedly preceded them and very little incriminating evidence was secured.

At Osceola the hotel of Martin Dugan was raided and two quarts and a pint of gin and two quarts and a half pint of whiskey was found.

Osceola Hotel Raided. Bernard McCann's pool room was also visited, but no booze of any kind was found. State Policeman R. W. Shaver conducted these raids and both men gave bail in $1,000 for their appearance at court on the charge of previous sales to Hutchinson and Hensel.

The house of David Phillips in Decatur township, was visited by State Trooper James J. McNamara, who found one three-gallon jug of moonshine and a quart of the stuff also. State Policemen Bruce R. Henry

Bill Wrigley Does Not Believe Musicians Are All Temperamental Folk

Bill Wrigley, who heads the Electric Supply Company, a chain of electrical stores and shops in this state, numbering a dozen or more does not seem to take any stock in the age old belief that musicians are temperamental and not conducive to efficiency and business management and we are inclined to believe that Bill is right.

All of last week the Electric Supply store here held a demonstration on electric ranges. The demonstration drew large crowds every day and the evening performances were especially well attended. Saturday evening the idea was conceived that there ought to be some music and it was decided that the event was worth an orchestra. Bill, remembering of hearing his temperamental employees discussing Mendelssohn, Mozart and Sousa, when they should have been selling washers and repairing motors, kinder thought that these names were names meant nothing to him, so he broached the subject to Paul Maharts, his chief aide de camp, and was advised that the payroll of the firm contained the names of a bunch of people, who could, on short notice form a contact that would spark efficiently.

Accordingly Harry Penrose Bridge the radio bug of the Electric Supply was summoned to bring over all his horns and his music and get busy on an "Electric Supply Orchestra." The result was a musical organization that pleased the big shopping crowd immensely. All of the members are connected with the firm and are as follows: H. P. Bridge, William Turner, Herbert Jury, Herbert Kinsinger, Lena Fullington, Paul Maharty and Victor Meredith as soloist. We heard this bunch and we suggest that they be called the "Lightning Armateurs" because they can stop anything in the

SLAYER OF MARION McLARREN HANGS SELF IN HIS CELL

New York, April 16.—Harold Van Alstine, vaudeville acrobat, who was sentenced last Friday to from twenty years to life imprisonment for the murder of Marion MacLarren, a member of the "Five Musical MacLarens" vaudeville troupe, was found hanging dead in his cell in the Tombs today with the end of his belt fastened around his neck and the other end to the iron works above him.

SMALL RACE RIOT AT BRADDOCK PUTS 28 BEHIND BARS

Braddock, Pa., April 16.—A series of alleged race riots here last night and early today resulted in the arrest of twenty-eight, including three negroes.

A report that two white girls had been insulted by negroes resulted in the rioting, which continued for more than three hours over an area of four blocks. Two young men were slightly injured by flying glass.

FOOL KILLER WOULD MAKE A GREAT HAUL ALONG THE TROUT STREAMS THIS MORNING; WE EXCEPT HUGHEY STEELE

Despite the fact that the temperature ranged around the freezing point in the mountains this morning a whole lot of damphooks and other disciples of Isaac Walton were found shivering and freezing on the trout streams in this vicinity when Old Sol lazily stuck his nose up over the ridges this morning. For ourselves, we hunt in the winter time and fish in the summer time only, and consequently are sitting here in our steam-heated office enviously awaiting first reports from the fellows we have described.

The records of County Treasurer Rumberger's office show that 1500 fishermen have taken out licenses to fish for trout in Clearfield county, but a very small percentage of that number availed themselves of that first day's opportunity to try their luck.

Grampian, Woodland And Madera To Get New Postmasters

An examination is to be held on May 12th to fill vacancies which will occur in August in three post-offices in Clearfield county. This examination has been called for at the request of the Postmaster General and the Civil Service Commission has announced an open, competitive examination.

It is expected that appointments will be made as a result of this examination, unless it is found in the interest of the service to fill any vacancies by transfer or promotion. This examination will not be held under the Civil Service Act and rules, but is held under an executive order, providing for such procedure.

The officers to be filled are:

Grampian, which pays $1400 annual salary, and which office will be vacant on August 20, 1928.

Madera, which pays $1000, annual salary, and which will be vacant on the same date.

Woodland, which pays $1200 annual salary, and will be vacant August 30, 1928.

Prospective applicants for any of these positions should write to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. for application forms No. 2441 and 2222, which forms will contain all the necessary information.

TO DRIVE SPURIOUS VET ORGANIZATIONS OUT OF EXISTENCE

Washington, April 16.—Serious war veterans organizations and publications believed to have been established to defraud, are to be driven out of existence by the combined forces of the Justice and Post Office Departments, it was learned here today.

Aggressive investigation by the two departments in the past few months, with the aid of legitimate veterans organizations have practically completed the chains of evidence necessary to federal prosecution.

A quick clean-up campaign, with many arrests, is in progress. The Post Office Department, it is learned, will shortly issue a number of fraud orders, naming certain of the parties of using mails to defraud, while the Department of Justice will investigate in localities where their offices are located.

Brock, Wealthy Clubman Who Ban Down And Killed 3, Pleads "Guilty"

Philadelphia, Pa., April 16.—Henry Gibson Brock, wealthy banker and clubman today was sentenced to serve from six to ten years in the Eastern Penitentiary by Judge Audenried, after pleading guilty to killing three persons with his motor car on March 2nd.

Brock took his sentence without any look of emotion and was hurried from the Court room.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 16.—Henry C. Brock, wealthy banker and clubman, charged with running down and killing three persons in his automobile, today pleaded guilty to the indictment of murder against him when the trial opened before Judge Audenried today.

The Court then began hearing testimony in the case in order to fix a charge of murder. After all witnesses are heard sentence will be passed.

Shortly before Court opened Brock entered the Court Room with his attorney. He appeared very nervous.

When the case was called Brock walked up and took the defendant's chair. He was asked to plead "guilty or not guilty" to the charges against him. "Guilty of second degree murder," the chairman said in a low voice. "On murder please it is incumbent on the Court to fix the degree," Judge Audenried at once said. Attorney Roberts then declared, "Very well, we enter a plea of guilty."

A Similar Case Today

Pittsfield, Mass., April 16.—Hurling out of a heavy storm into a hapless group of persons waiting for a street car, an automobile driven by Fred Miller crashed but two lives, injured two others and carried off a three year old baby, tossed into the tonneau by the crash.

Miller was arrested today on the charge of murder, the death car, stained with the wind shield broken, being found in Miller's yard after police had hunted through the town Sunday.

Artist Christy Defines Real American Beauty

Says Adrienne Lachamp Blends Charm of Nations

If several of our best artists are right, we must say good-bye to the doll-faced vision of blue and gold and rosy pink who's been smiling at us from magazine covers, popular fiction, milk stocking ads, and the screen.

At least Howard Chandler Christy, connoisseur of pretty girls, Wm. Pogany, well known scenic artist, W. T. Benda, creator of the famous masks, and Tong Sarg, of marionette renown, are all agreed that the fair-skinned, aurore-eyed Angel-Saxon who has reigned so long as the accepted type of all-American girl isn't really representative at all.

CHRISTY EXPLAINS

"It is only way," explains artist Christy, "to get a true national beauty is to blend the elements that now compose our country—Irish, Swedish, French, Italian, Russian, Scotch, Dutch and Hungarian."

As to the artists have selected Adrienne Lachamp, born in China, daughter of a French diplomat and a Hungarian beauty, great-granddaughter of a British sea captain and a Polish general, and American

by adoption, as an approximation of what the composite American girl ought to be.

Little Miss Lachamp, whose pretty head isn't the least turned by all the charming things people say of her, declares that America is made up of composites—girls, art, music, food and everything.

"And ces eet not natural?" she demands, with the accent which makes her use of our language a delight to the ear.

"Americans demand the best and the best is made up of good from everything."

LOVELY LUCERNE

"I have been particularly interested to note your music. In that you have borrowed from every country and then added your own touch to make it go."

"You did that with a pretty thing they are singing in Paris this year, called 'Lovely Lucerne'. It sounds as if it really were written about the beautiful Swiss lake, yet there's something Parisian about it, and above all, an Americanness that gives it the twist that makes everybody want to sing it."

"Yes, of a surety, to be an American composite, is to be a great success. I am grateful to the artists who paid me this international compliment."

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. C.

The uninitiated could get some idea of what the State Police and other law officers are up against in their attempt to enforce the prohibition law from hearing Major Lynn G. Adams' story of just one of the attempts made to bribe the men in his command. In his address before the Commons Club at Trinity church Friday evening Major Adams, after highly complimenting the State Police force as a whole, told of how one of his captains had been offered the princely sum of $5,000 monthly, the cash to be left on his front porch each month, on condition that he would have his men pick up the drivers and trucks from a certain brewery on Fridays of each week only, allowing them to operate unmolested every other day in the week. This particular captain is getting a salary of $240 per month yet he respected his honor's oath of office and was loyal enough to his organization to put satin behind him and refused the bribe.

Major Adams says that ninety and nine per cent of more of the members of the State Police force possess the same sense of loyalty. That being so Pennsylvania will soon be really a "dry" state.

In grave contrast to Major Adams is the statement of Magistrate Corrigan in the New York police court Friday, when he publicly charged from the bench that the New York City police were grafting off the bootleggers and making thousands of dollars out of it and proved his case by pointing to the fact that there had been over 13,000 arrests for liquor law violation during the past year and out of this vast number but thirteen violators were convicted, thanks to the withholding of evidence at the trial by the police.

You have heard the phrase, "Let loose the dogs of war." This expression one had a real meaning. In the Middle Ages dogs were employed for carrying fire toward the cavalry of the enemy, in order to frighten their horses and cause them to stampede. On their backs they bore a kettle of burning resin, the odor, smoke and flame of which naturally excited the horses. Underneath the kettle was a stout jacket of leather, which protected the dogs in case the hot resin was spilled.

About everybody interested in public education at all familiar with the work of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Fineg, are strenuously urging Governor Pinchot to retain this able educator at the head of our Department of Education. The latest testimonial to Supt. Fineg's worth is contained in the following resolution adopted at a state convention of friends of education held at Harrisburg last week. The resolutions adopted read in part as follows:

"We, the Schoolmen of Pennsylvania, assembled in Schoolmen's Week, convey to Governor Pinchot our appreciation of his participation in our program and his gracious evidences of interest in us and in the children of the public schools for whom we work, and that we make known to him our gratitude for his renewed assurance that there will be no backward step in public school education during the present administration, and that we express to him our hope and firm conviction that he will further encourage and strengthen us in our work, by announcing at an early date the reappointment of Dr. Thomas E. Fineg as State Superintendent of Public Instruction."

"We urge the Governor and the General Assembly to exert all their powers, both of leadership and of legislation, to carry forward the Pennsylvania program of education in the following specific ways: First, that sufficient appropriations be made to carry out the provisions of the Edmonds Law as now enacted; second, that appropriations be made over and beyond the provisions of the Edmonds Law to help those financially weak districts, to maintain the standards set up by the Edmonds Law; third, that ample provision be made to enable the State Normal Schools to continue the teacher-training program so well started; fourth, that provision be made to carry out the program of the State Council for higher education.

"We assure Dr. Fineg of our approval of his policies, our confidence in his leadership and our admiration for his educational vision, and that we pledge to him anew our hearty support and undivided loyalty."

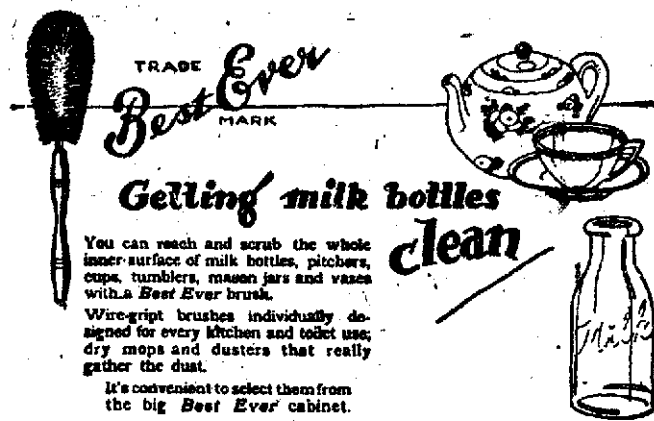

"We indorse with emphasis the firm and resolute stand the Governor of the Commonwealth has taken in relation to the enforcement of law in Pennsylvania. We believe with him that obedience of law by every citizen, in state and nation, is absolutely essential to the maintenance and preservation of good government."

FINIS RECORD OF SUMMERLESS YEAR

Phoenixville, Pa., April 6.—Mrs. Levi Pennypacker has a scrapbook that contains a clipping from the Boston Journal that her father, the late Abraham Powell, placed there, telling of the summerless year of 1816. It reads as follows:

"January and February of 1816 were warm and springlike. March was cold and stormy; vegetation had gotten well along in April, when real winter set in. Snow and sleet fell on fifteen different days in May. In June there was either frost or snow every night but three.

"The snow was five inches deep for several days in succession in the interior of New York and from ten inches to three feet in Vermont and Maine.

"July was cold and frosty; ice formed as thick as window panes in every one of the New England states. August was still worse. Ice formed nearly an inch in thickness and killed nearly every green thing in the United States.

"In the spring of 1817, corn that had been kept over from the crop of 1816 sold for $5 to $10 a bushel, the buyer paying for seed.

"May 10, 1820, snow fell to the depth of a foot in Jamestown, Va., and was piled in huge drifts in most of the northern states. There were snows in many parts of Iowa, Illinois May 11, 1878, and again as late as May, 23, 1882."

New York, April 6.—The planets that mean an end of all things come in conjunction in my horoscope about April 1.

These were the words which Mrs. William H. MacFarlane, of Brooklyn, yesterday asserted her husband, an astrologer, had uttered a month ago while in good health. Last Sunday he died.

That is a problem that long has confronted the famous Jiggs Mahoney of "Bringing Up Father" fame whose woes and tribulations have earned for him the sympathy of the populace yet without making him the most beloved character in the world today. Jiggs has solved his problems in his own way. Just as he is depicted in the latest musical comedy triumph "Father on His Vacation" which will be seen at The

Loosen Up That Cold With Musterole

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all the advantages of grandmother's mustard plaster WITHOUT the blister. You just apply it with the fingers. First you feel a warm tingle as the healing ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief. Made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients, Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, croup, asthma, neuritis, congestion, pains and aches of the back or joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest. It may prevent pneumonia and "flu." 35c and 65c jars and tubes.

Better than a mustard plaster

In the morning worship, the Resurrection of Jesus was carried forward in the thought of Paul, Romans 1:1-4, to its establishing His divinity. At 8:15, on Genesis 12:1-4, Abraham's Amazing Adventure was thoroughly studied and strongly applied with directness to this age and community.

The music throughout the day was very special. In the evening the instrumental trio numbers by Miss Woodward, organist, Mrs. Gallagher, pianist and Mr. Davis, violinist, made distinct and inspiring contribution to the service.

Rev. Hauser, pastor of the Lutheran church at Clearfield, will conduct a week service in Grace Lutheran church, this place, commencing with tonight. Meetings will be held each night during the week, Saturday night being excepted. Mr. Hauser is a minister of considerable literary ability and it will be a pleasure of the people of this community to attend these services and hear him discourse on themes of the bible and genuine religion.

A regular wintery snow storm visited this region on Friday night and continued all day Saturday. Taking the fall entire there was almost twelve inches came down. There was a small or two Saturday night and folks arising on Sunday morning noted the ground was covered by two or three inches more. Out in sections west and north of Curwensville people report considerable more snow than what had fallen here and in the valley. The snow fall of April 14th, 1923, will be remembered for years to come, but it is not the only event to be kept in mind, as it was on the 14th day of April, 1865, that the greatest President of these United States, Abraham Lincoln lost his life by assassination, at the hands of Wilkes Booth.

A Memorial Service pamphlet, issued by the members of the adult department of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School in memory of the life work of two departed members, Mrs. S. C. Watts, who died October 24, 1922, and James Caldwell Bloom, who departed this life January 10th, 1923 is out in print. The pamphlet, among kind words said of the deceased is a song by a quartette, the singers being Messrs Geo. E. Croyle, John D. Haines, R. K. Way and Lynn Daugherty, entitled "My Savior First of All," a paper read by Mrs. M. A. Caldwell, a member of Mrs. Watts' class, entitled "We Too Weep." The quartette "Pilot Me Home," by Mrs. J. H. "Inured Into Life," by Mrs. Nettie Ferguson. Then an "Eulogy of James Caldwell Bloom," by N. D. Shroy, a paper worthy of mention. Then follows several pages written by S. C. Watts. The words in this little moment of Christian comradeship are not in comprehensible of meaning to the writer as he was acquainted with the life work of both of the departed, and every bit of word is contained within the pamphlet and of twelve pages are just and true. "Sleep or ashrined and sainted dead,

Pure as the love you gave,
No impious footsteps ere shall tread
The heibag of your grave;
Nor shall your memory be forgot,
While Hope her record keeps,
Or honor points to the hallowed spot
Where a true Christian sweetly sleeps."

William Edmiston, who is connected with the brick yard at Woodland, came over Sunday to inspect his new sister and hold converse with Curwensville friends.

Raymond Sires, formerly a foreman at the brick yard here, now holding down a similar position in one of the Clearfield yards, came up Saturday evening for a visit with his parents and see what some of his former fellow workmen were doing.

Thursday, the 19th, has been designated as "Patriots Day" and also, usually speaking, a legal holiday. Would it not be well if the different departments of our public schools would lay, as do the usual line of school work at this time and substitute in place a general line of patriotism in its full meaning. No doubt the lessons included would prove an everlasting benefit in years, that will follow the pupils through life. Individual patriotism as learned from the date of the Revolution to the present time, cannot help but be interesting to the average school pupil of today.

How many people are there in Curwensville today who can vividly recall what important event took place on April 12th, 1861? It was at that time the first shot of the civil war was fired, and at Fort Sumpter, the cause of which eventually one of the greatest epochs in American history has been written.

Bill's Dandy has about finished the job of getting the machinery at the tearing Run stone quarries in workable condition: both at the loading wharf and in the mountains where the stones are hauled out of the earth and made ready for the cutters. If favorable weather conditions prevail his plant will start operations in less than the next ten days, as several orders for stone has already reached the office in this place.

William Peoples had occasion to shoot a valuable dog which belonged to one of his sons on Saturday forenoon. The dog showed all signs of rabies, and when the animal broke from its chain Mr. Peoples thought it about time to kill it, for fear that in running across the canal would bite some one in his neighborhood.

and that on the 14th of April, 50 years ago the snow was a trifle over one foot in depth; that John Anderson,

A number of Curwensville men who are connected with the hunting lodge, called, "Greenwood Camp" about five miles out on the mountain, packed up kits and went out there on Saturday, ostensibly for the purpose of being on the trout streams at an early hour Monday morning.

Mrs. Lottie Murphy, on Grampian road, is reported as being ill at her home.

Dick Moore has purchased the Ashley McDowell property in Pike township, but within less than a quarter of a mile of the borough line. The purchase includes the dwelling house and out buildings and three adjoining lots. The purchase price was $4000. Mr. Moore expects to obtain possession of the property about May 1st, or possibly a little sooner if matters can be arranged.

Landlord John Fox is disposing of the furniture, etc., at the Park House prior to his removal from that hostelry, about May 1st, after which time the new purchaser of that block, James Richards, of Mahaffey, will take possession.

George Anderson, fire warden and road supervisor of Pike township was in town Saturday. Talking about news this late in the season, he gave out this information and swears that it is correct as he secured the data from some old books kept by his father, Jno Anderson, at the time. His father, Reuben Hall, Joseph Boast, John Appleton, Joseph Bailey and

Will Anderson, hauled a raft of timber on the 14th day of April from the "flat rocks" and landed the same on the river bank at the Leah Bloom farm. Ira Shaffer comes forward also and states that 61 years ago on the 14th of April, the family that he was living with at the time moved on sleds from the old Logan grist mill to the Chas Goodwin place, and there was plenty of snow on the ground with which to do it, without striking mud or gravel.

The writer was a little premature Saturday in sending Mr. Wm. Ten Eyck back to his Missouri home. The fact of the matter is he did not start on his return to the west until today and was very reluctant to make the start at that. "Willie" was a mere cub when he was taken to Missouri by his parents but while growing up in the wild and woolly, he heard his folks talk a great deal off and on about their old home back in the mountains of the far West and thus eradicated a memory to want to see Curwensville and the mountaineers who in his mind carried long barrels, rifles and wore whiskers down to his knees.

After every meal, the opportunity to visit our town presented itself at last with me, until my day came to an end in the states of my forced adoption, (not meaning of course that old Missouri is not good enough ground for any one to be proud of) If I am permitted to grace this earth a few years longer, I am coming back and bring my family with me for them to see what I have seen and shake the hands that I have been permitted to shake in a true and not a make believe friendship. May we all meet again. Verily, yea.

As to Misfortunes
If all men would be as their misfortunes together in one place, most would be glad to take their own home again, rather than to take a proportion out of the common stock.

Why Jewett never "stalls,"
"jerks," nor clashes Gears

YOU can change gears in a Jewett as fast as you can move your hand—or as slowly as you please. No "clash" is heard—and you never "miss." You can even drop from "high" to "second" at 30 miles an hour. Let up the clutch pedal as fast as you can move your foot, and Jewett neither jerks nor kills its motor.

Such superb handling ease comes largely from the new Paige-type Jewett clutch. Its driven member weighs less than 3 1/2 pounds, one-third the usual weight. So it stops spinning instantly—adjusts itself to speed changes quickly—helps you change gears. And the six clutch springs instead of one, and twice the friction surface of the ordinary clutch, give the smooth, gradual engagement which prevents jerking or motor stalling. Please try Jewett's ease yourself.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

Glasses which do not stay in an optically correct position before your eyes are not only troublesome but are apt to cause further injury by straining the eyes.

Our glasses are made to fit and stay fitted. One of the principal reasons for their doing this is that we have the best modern devices for making them. For instance, this little machine drills the holes in the lenses by means of which they are fastened to the mounting and it is so delicately designed that these very important holes can be made absolutely exact.

HOUSE TO WRESTLE WITH TAXATION, SENATE TO GRAPPLE WITH PINCHOT RE-ORGANIZATION CODE THIS WEEK

Harrisburg, April 16.—New taxation in the House and the Governor's organization plan in the Senate were expected to be the principal questions for consideration by the legislative officers, as members returned here today for the fourteenth week of the session.

The House adjourned last week in the heat of a debate over taxation. It is thought likely the war of words will resume when the House convenes at nine tonight. Several of the men who were attacked last week are expected to re-open the subject by rising to defend themselves and their ideas at the first opportunity.

The ways and means committee meets tomorrow and many of its members have promised to report out the long awaited tax bill although the Legislature and Governor Pinchot are understood still to be ten million dollars apart on the total as set forth in the budget and necessary appropriations.

Pinchot For New Taxes.
Harrisburg, April 16.—Governor Pinchot, in a statement issued here today, declared that the administration favored new taxation. The Governor's statement was in reply to an assertion made in the taxation debate in the House on Thursday that the public believed the Governor would run the state government without additional revenue.

"I have repeatedly pointed out that education requires more money," declared Pinchot today. "If the state does not supply it, the school districts must. The choice is not between some new taxes and no new taxes, but between new state taxes and heavier local taxes. Under these circumstances I am for new state taxes as being the more proper and equitable way to raise the money."

In addition to outlining for the first time the administration policy in regard to new taxes, Pinchot expressed his determined opposition to stretching the payment of the twenty-nine million dollar deficiency over a period of four years instead of clearing it up in two years, as provided in the budget.

Woodland Speeders Pay Fines Into The Borough Treasury

The police have been looking after speed maniacs down in East End the past week and landed a couple of auto drivers the past couple of days for violating the speed laws. Marshal Eschelman, of Woodland, found the hoodoo working Friday 13th and was soaked $12 by Mayor Kittelberger for getting out of town at about 30 miles per hour.

Burton Peters, another rapid lad from out Woodland way, "burned the brick" Saturday night and was also given a chance to enrich the borough treasury $12 for that offense. In attempting to get away from the officers when he saw they were after him Peters stepped on "er, according to the police, and dashing through a gang of dogs crossing the street knocked a big white dog for a string of sausages but never slowed down for a minute.

The speeders are going to have a hard row to hoe around here the coming few weeks.

V. F. W. ACTIVE IN MOVEMENT TO SAVE THE OLD "OLYMPIA"

New York, N. Y., April 16.—An appeal to Congress to save the famous old battle cruiser Olympia, Dewey flagship at the battle of Manila, from the ignominy of the scrap heap is being sponsored by the Stafford-Crisler Post No. 957, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. "Little Falls, New York. The most famous of the naval vessels of the Spanish-American War lies in desolation and abandonment in the lagoon at Philadelphia Navy yard, while other famous ships that have done no more towards making the illustrious history of the American Navy, have been preserved by order of the Government. It is the firm belief of the veterans that the Olympia should be accorded a position of honor alongside "Old Ironsides" of 1812 fame, and the "Hartford" of Farragut.

Ruhr Miners Have Novel Plan They Suggest To Germany

Berlin, April 16.—The Ruhr miners conference, representing all parties in the region, petitioned the German government in a resolution today to publish its entire reparation plan for international discussion.

In this way the entire matter would be placed before the world for consideration.

HUGE MERGER OF GERMAN INDUSTRY IS PLANNED TODAY

Berlin, April 16.—A huge coalition of major German industries, to be the largest in European economic history, is being organized here today by Hugo Stinnes and his associates.

Arrangements have already been made by Stinnes and Birlinger Handels-Gesellschaft for the merger of the Stinnes-Fustenberg, Otto Wolf and Jacco Goldschmidt interests.

The new trust will undertake further efficiency in the development of the upper Silesian Coal, iron and steel regions and other groups are expected to be drawn in as soon as the plan is under development.

"FATHER" A POULAR MAN

"Bringing Up Father" is to be the attraction at the Driggs Theatre this Wednesday evening. Manager Hartman called The Progress this afternoon to say that our chief funny man was quite popular in Clearfield.

The seats are going so fast that undoubtedly the house will be sold out long before the time for the curtain to raise. Order your seats tonight if you would be sure to see "Bringing Up Father."

C. H. S. TRACK MEN FULL OF PROMISE; SUCCESSFUL SEASON CERTAIN BECAUSE OF ITS DETERMINATION TO WIN OUT

Hats off to Clearfield High School's track material for 1928! Undaunted by their inexperience, their necessity to start late, and what-not, the fellows are working with a determination and perseverance that must ultimately mean achievement.

For the past two weeks the boys have taken cross-country runs and special drills so designed as to be an aid in developing each man along lines that will enable him better to take on the more rigid later training. In general, the system most used in pre-seasonal conditioning of green track material has been employed, and good results are already in evidence.

This week sees the runners working diligently on starts and sprints, as well as the usual long distance running to develop endurance. The field events, too, are now occupying a large place in the every day workouts. There is plenty of promising material for weights, and this week will see the jumpers hard at their respective events.

As matters look now, May 12th will see the boys at State College and May 19th at DuBois. These meets, important as they are in the minds of the C. H. S. track men, are, in the end, only try-outs, stopping stones that prepare the team for the big event, our annual Clearfield meet, May 30th. The team is a unit in its determination to win the big cup this year for the third and final time. Given the same loyal support of community and school shown in football and basketball they will come out on top, as in previous years, in track and field.

MOONSHINE AND ITS PEDDLERS GETTING HARD TO FIND

QUANTITIES SMALL

The enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment in Clearfield county is rapidly getting to be much more of a condition than a theory nowadays. In fact it is rapidly coming to such a pass that no honest bootlegger is safe in taking a chance any more. Time was when the bootlegger could confine his sales to his regular trade or the "good roosters" in his home community and be safe from the hated dry sleuth because dead men and moonshine purchasers (many times the same fellows) told no tales. But even all that is changed now, and the money-hungry rum peddler knows that the hour anyone of his many cash customers may throw him down.

Two Clever Sleuths.

For some time there has been more than a suspicion of moisture in the Moshannon country extending from Osceola up through Houtdale even as far south as Ramey, always including Atlantic. The dry officers were powerless to get evidence because of the "hang together" policy of 'shiners' and customer. Determined to upset the moonshiner and his illegal barrel the authorities got busy and enlisting the services of Jonathan Hutchinson and Johnny Hursel, a couple of well known young men in the Moshannon region, who were employed at No. 27 mine and familiar with local and district conditions. These lads were put to work for law and order and soon dug up evidence enough to warrant a descent on the entire section by a patrol of twelve or fifteen state troopers. The boys worked their stunt pretty slick and explained their absence while out hunting evidence on the ground that they were participants in a movie contest down at Harrisburg earning for themselves the titles of Wally Reid and Bill Hart.

Saturday afternoon was fixed for the raid and the necessity for the movie preparation was shown when, after securing their search warrants on the evidence procured by Hutchinson and Hensel, the police officers raided the different places they found word of their coming had undoubtedly preceded them and very little incriminating evidence was secured.

At Osceola the hotel of Martin Dugan was raided and two quarts and a pint of gin and two quarts and a half pint of whiskey was found.

Osceola Hotel Raided.

Bernard McCann's pool room was also visited, but no booze of any kind was found. State Policeman R. W. Shaver conducted these raids and both men gave bail in $1,000 for their appearance at court on the charge of previous sales to Hutchinson and Hensel.

The house of David Phillips in Decatur township, was visited by State Trooper James J. McNamara, who found one three-gallon jug of moonshine and a quart of the stuff also.

State Policemen Bruce R. Henry

Volstead Leaves

Andrew Volstead, author of the famous amendment, visited President Harding to say farewell upon leaving Congress. He dodged the battery of cameramen who waited for him and hurried across the White House lawn, as this photo shows.

Bill Wrigley Does Not Believe Musicians Are All Temperamental Folk

Bill Wrigley, who heads the Electric Supply Company, a chain of electrical stores and shops in this state, numbering a dozen or more does not seem to take any stock in the age old belief that musicians are temperamental and not conducive to efficiency and business management and we are inclined to believe that Bill is right.

All of last week the Electric Supply store here held a demonstration on electric ranges. The demonstration drew large crowds every day and the evening performances were especially well attended. Saturday evening the idea was conceived that there ought to be some music and it was decided that the event was worth an orchestra. Bill, remembering of hearing his temperamental employees discussing Mendelssohn, Mozart and Sousa, when they should have been selling washers and repairing motors, kinder thought that these names were names meant nothing to him, so he broached the subject to Paul Maharts, his chief aide de camp, and was advised that the payroll of the firm contained the names of a bunch of people, who could, on short notice form a contact that would spark efficiently.

Accordingly Harry Penrose Bridge the radio bug of the Electric Supply was summoned to bring over all his horns and his music and get busy on an "Electric Supply Orchestra." The result was a musical organization that pleased the big shopping crowd immensely. All of the members are connected with the firm and are as follows: H. P. Bridge, William Turner, Herbert Jury, Herbert Kinsinger, Lena Fullington, Paul Maharty and Victor Meredith as soloist. We heard this bunch and we suggest that they be called the "Lightning Armateurs" because they can stop anything in the

An examination is to be held on May 12th to fill vacancies which will occur in August in three post-offices in Clearfield county. This examination has been called for at the request of the Postmaster General and the Civil Service Commission has announced an open, competitive examination.

It is expected that appointments will be made as a result of this examination, unless it is found in the interest of the service to fill any vacancies by transfer or promotion. This examination will not be held under the Civil Service Act and rules, but is held under an executive order, providing for such procedure.

The offices to be filled are:

Grampian, which pays $1400 annual salary, and which office will be vacant on August 20, 1928.

Madera, which pays $1000, annual salary, and which will be vacant on the same date.

Woodland, which pays $1200 annual salary, and will be vacant August 30, 1928.

Prospective applicants for any of these positions should write to the United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. for application forms No. 2441 and 2222, which forms will contain all the necessary information.

Brock, Wealthy Clubman Who Ban Down And Killed 3, Pleads "Guilty"

Philadelphia, Pa., April 16.—Henry Gibson Brock, wealthy banker and clubman today was sentenced to serve from six to ten years in the Eastern Penitentiary by Judge Audenried, after pleading guilty to killing three persons with his motor car on March 2nd.

Brock took his sentence without any look of emotion and has hurried from the Court room.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 16.—Henry C. Brock, wealthy banker and clubman, charged with running down and killing three persons in his automobile, today pleaded guilty to the indictment of murder against him when the trial opened before Judge Audenried today.

The Court then began hearing testimony in the case in order to fix a charge of murder. After all witnesses are heard sentence will be passed.

Shortly before Court opened Brock entered the Court Room with his attorney. He appeared very nervous.

When the case was called Brock walked up and took the defendant's chair. He was asked to plead "guilty or not guilty" to the charges against him. "Guilty of second degree murder," the chairman said in a low voice.

"On murder pleas it is incumbent on the Court to fix the degree," Judge Audenried at once said. Attorney Roberts then declared, "Very well, we enter a plea of guilty."

Miller was arrested today on the charge of murder, the death car, stained with the wind shield broken, being found in Miller's yard after police had hunted through the town Sunday.

BOARDMAN YIELDS UP TWO BOOTLEGGERS CASES ON SATURDAY

State Trooper Kirk personally conducted a party of officers up to Boardman Saturday evening where the entire party made a social call at the home of John Chlesko. John's place was one of the most popular gathering places in the little mining town and entertained hosts of guests sometimes, his said. At any rate when the officers explored the home of their reluctant host they found a reason for John's apparent popularity in the community. Safely ensconced in the kitchen was a complete still, while two barrels of mash, three half gallon jugs and two quarts of finished liquor were found on the premises.

John was persuaded to accompany the officers to Clearfield and not caring to make the trip alone his neighbor and co-worker in the movement, to resurrect old John Barleycorn one John Urbanivitch was interviewed by Trooper Kirk and his assistants and as he was found with two half gallon jugs and one quart of moonshine left of his Saturday stock it was a cinch to induce Urbanivitch to accompany Chlesko to "keep him from getting homesick in the Clearfield county jail, where they are now awaiting May term of criminal court.

FOOL KILLER WOULD MAKE A GREAT HAUL ALONG THE TROUT STREAMS THIS MORNING; WE EXCEPT HUGHEY STEELE

Despite the fact that the temperature ranged around the freezing point in the mountains this morning a whole lot of damphooks and other disciples of Isaac Walton were found shivering and freezing on the trout streams in this vicinity when Old Sol lazily stuck his nose up over the ridges this morning. For ourselves, we hunt in the winter time and fish in the summer time only, and consequently are sitting here in our steaming office enviously awaiting first reports from the fellows we have described.

The records of County Treasurer Rumberger's office show that 1500 fishermen have taken out licenses to fish for trout in Clearfield county, but a very small percentage of that number availed themselves of that first day's opportunity to try their luck.

The oldest fisherman in Clearfield county is Hughey Steele, of 135 E. Weber avenue, DuBois. Hughey's application for a license shows that he has already passed his 85th birthday and is still going strong. According to his friend Jesse Dale, the venerable Mr. Steele is not only an enthusiastic hunter and fisherman, but is keen-eyed enough to "track" the wily honey bee to his lair and spend much of his time in the woods during the summer and fall, especially so since he retired partially from active work. Hughey is a carpenter by trade but shortly after passing his 85th birthday he fell from the roof of a two story building he was shingling and landed that inasmuch as he didn't want to shorten his life he had better quit climbing and has since confined his

Says Adrienne Lachamp Blends Charm of Nations

If several of our best artists are right, we must say good-bye to the doll-like and vision of blue and gold and rosy pink who have been smiling at us from magazine covers, popular fiction, milk stocking ads, and the screen.

At least Howard Chandler Christy, master of the pretty girl, Wm. Pogany, well known scenic artist, W. T. Benda, creator of the famous masks, and Tong Sarg, of marksmanship renown, are all agreed that the fair-skinned, aurore-eyed Angel-Saxon who has reigned so long as the accepted type of all-American girl isn't really representative at all.

CHRISTY EXPLAINS

"It is only way," explains artist Christy, "to get a true national beauty is to blend the elements that now compose our country—Irish, Swedish, French, Italian, Russian, Scotch, Dutch and Hungarian."

As to the artists have selected Adrienne Lachamp, born in China, daughter of a French diplomat and a Hungarian beauty, great-granddaughter of a British sea captain and a Polish general, and American

by adoption, as an approximation of what the composite American girl ought to be.

Little Miss Lachamp, whose pretty head isn't the least turned by all the charming things people say of her, declares that America is made up of composites—girls, art, music, food and everything.

"And ces eet not natural?" she demands, with the accent which makes her use of our language a delight to the ear.

"Americans demand the best and the best is made up of good from everything."

LOVELY LUCERNE

"I have been particularly interested to note your music. In that you have borrowed from every country and then added your own touch to make it go."

"You did that with a pretty thing they are singing in Paris this year, called 'Lovely Lucerne'. It sounds as if it really were written about the beautiful Swiss lake, yet there's something Parisian about it, and above all, an Americanness that gives it the twist that makes everybody want to sing it."

"Yes, of a surety, to be an American composite, is to be a great success. I am grateful to the artists who paid me this international compliment."

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

By J. D. G.

The uninitiated could get some idea of what the State Police and other law officers are up against in their attempt to enforce the prohibition law from hearing Major Lynn G. Adams' story of just one of the attempts made to bribe the men in his command. In his address before the Commons Club at Trinity church Friday evening Major Adams, after highly complimenting the State Police force as a whole, told of how one of his captains had been offered the princely sum of $5,000 monthly, the cash to be left on his front porch each month, on condition that he would have his men pick up the drivers and trucks from a certain brewery on Fridays of each week only, allowing them to operate unmolested every other day in the week. This particular captain is getting a salary of $240 per month yet he respected his honor's oath of office and was loyal enough to his organization to put satin behind him and refused the bribe.

Major Adams says that ninety and nine per cent of more of the members of the State Police force possess the same sense of loyalty. That being so Pennsylvania will soon be really a "dry" state.

In grave contrast to Major Adams is the statement of Magistrate Corrigan in the New York police court Friday, when he publicly charged from the bench that the New York City police were grafting off the bootleggers and making thousands of dollars out of it and proved his case by pointing to the fact that there had been over 13,000 arrests for liquor law violation during the past year and out of this vast number but thirteen violators were convicted, thanks to the withholding of evidence at the trial by the police.

You have heard the phrase, "Let loose the dogs of war." This expression one had a real meaning. In the Middle Ages dogs were employed for carrying fire toward the cavalry of the enemy, in order to frighten their horses and cause them to stampede. On their backs they bore a kettle of burning resin, the odor, smoke and flame of which naturally excited the horses. Underneath the kettle was a stout jacket of leather, which protected the dogs in case the hot resin was spilled.

About everybody interested in public education at all familiar with the work of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Fineg are strenuously urging Governor Pinchot to retain this able educator at the head of our Department of Education. The latest testimonial to Supt. Fineg's worth is contained in the following resolution adopted at a state convention of friends of education held at Harrisburg last week. The resolutions adopted read in part as follows:

"We, the Schoolmen of Pennsylvania, assembled in Schoolmen's Week, convey to Governor Pinchot our appreciation of his participation in our program and his gracious evidences of interest in us and in the children of the public schools for whom we work, and that we make known to him our gratitude for his renewed assurance that there will be no backward step in public school education during the present administration, and that we express to him our hope and firm conviction that he will further encourage and strengthen us in our work, by announcing at an early date the reappointment of Dr. Thomas E. Fineg as State Superintendent of Public Instruction."

"We urge the Governor and the General Assembly to exert all their powers, both of leadership and of legislation, to carry forward the Pennsylvania program of education in the following specific ways: First, that sufficient appropriations be made to carry out the provisions of the Edmonds Law as now enacted; second, that appropriations be made over and beyond the provisions of the Edmonds Law to help those financially weak districts, to maintain the standards set up by the Edmonds Law; third, that ample provision be made to enable the State Normal Schools to continue the teacher-training program so well started; fourth, that provision be made to carry out the program of the State Council for higher education.

"We assure Dr. Fineg of our approval of his policies, our confidence in his leadership and our admiration for his educational vision, and that we pledge to him anew our hearty support and undivided loyalty."

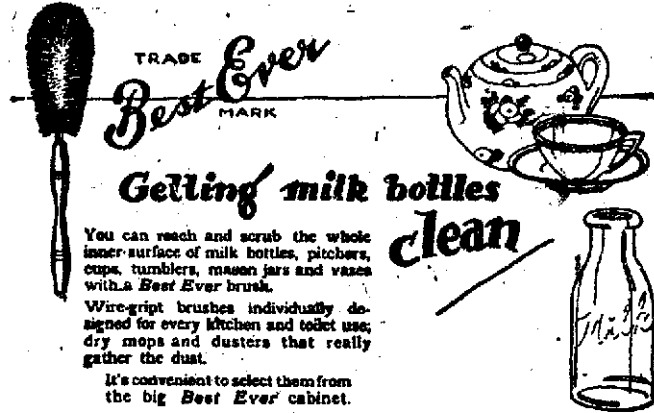

"We indorse with emphasis the firm and resolute stand the Governor of the Commonwealth has taken in relation to the enforcement of law in Pennsylvania. We believe with him that obedience of law by every citizen, in state and nation, is absolutely essential to the maintenance and preservation of good government."

How is it possible to give you quality at the low cost of 10 cents for 50 cigarettes?

The average smoker saves $1 to $1.50 a week by "rolling his own" from "Bull"—or from $52 to $78 a year. This makes quite a Christmas fund—or pays for a fine trip.

FINIS RECORD OF SUMMERLESS YEAR

Phoenixville, Pa., April 6.—Mrs. Levi Pennypacker has a scrapbook that contains a clipping from the Boston Journal that her father, the late Abraham Powell, placed there, telling of the summerless year of 1816. It reads as follows:

"January and February of 1816 were warm and springlike. March was cold and stormy; vegetation had gotten well along in April, when real winter set in. Snow and sleet fell on seventeen different days in May. In June there was either frost or snow every night but three.

"The snow was five inches deep for several days in succession in the interior of New York and from ten inches to three feet in Vermont and Maine.

"July was cold and frosty; ice formed as thick as window panes in every one of the New England states. August was still worse. Ice formed nearly an inch in thickness and killed nearly every green thing in the United States.

"In the spring of 1817, corn that had been kept over from the crop of 1816 sold for $5 to $10 a bushel, the buyer paying for seed.

"May 10, 1820, snow fell to the depth of a foot in Jamestown, Va., and was piled in huge drifts in most of the northern states. There were snows in many parts of Iowa, Illinois May 11, 1878, and again as late as May, 23, 1882."

New York, April 6.—The planets that mean an end of all things come in conjunction in my horoscope about April 1.

These were the words which Mrs. William H. MacFarlane, of Brooklyn, yesterday asserted her husband, an astrologer, had uttered a month ago while in good health. Last Sunday he died.

IS THIS YOU?

Supposing you were a good, peaceful citizen, a dutiful parent and a loyal family man and found yourself unappreciated and intolerably hen-pecked in the bargain? What would you do? Do you think you would upset conventions and kick over the traces, or bow to the inevitable and take your medicine calmly or nurse your wrongs in the silence of a wounded heart? That is a problem that long has confronted the famous Jiggs Mahoney of "Bringing Up Father" fame whose woes and tribulations have earned for him the sympathy of the populace yet without making him the most beloved character in the world today. Jiggs has solved his problems in his own way. Just as he is depicted in the latest musical comedy triumph "Father on His Vacation" which will be seen at The

WATCH FOR THESE FOOD SALES

The regular weekly Scout food sale on Saturday was in charge of Troop 10. An unusually plentiful and appetizing array of ortables was on sale but shoppers seem to find the half block from Second or Third street rather far. Toward evening it was necessary to move the remainder of the stock to the Trust Company window which has kindly been offered for such emergencies but the Scouts' own home is the really convenient and logical place for these affairs.

The Scouts feel sure that if their sale is on the regular marketing list of housewives Saturday afternoon it will become the natural thing to stop by every week. This is not asking favors of any one for the wares are varied and perfect, and since the world must eat, this is a legitimate method of raising money. Proceeds are still going toward uniforms and the town will have reason to be proud of their appearance when the Scouts can appear in regulation costume.

The Scout movie, "The Golden Eagle" given Friday afternoon and evening at the Globe theatre, did not quite make expenses, which of course were high for such an entertainment. All who saw the Scout film, however, will agree that it is a splendid picture and that Scouting can do for the individual girl and the town.

The Scouts owe much to the interested co-operation and help of Mr. Harman who has given much time and thought to this venture. He selected with great care the accompanying picture, "The Land of Egypt" and largely took charge of the advertising.

Interested in the study of Joseph's career, the Bible School gave itself earnestly to yesterday's program. Decrease of 77 in attendance and offering. The last meeting of Junior League was held in the afternoon. Epworth League had its meeting, popular topic.

In the morning worship, the Resurrection of Jesus was carried forward in the thought of Paul, Romans 1:1-4, to its establishing His divinity. At 8:15, on Genesis 12:1-4, Abraham's Amazing Adventure was thoroughly studied and strongly applied with directness to this age and community.

The music throughout the day was very special. In the evening the instrumental trio numbers by Miss Woodward, organist, Mrs. Gallagher, pianist and Mr. Davis, violinist, made distinct and inspiring contribution to the service.

Curwensville's
Own Column

Rev. Hauser, pastor of the Lutheran church at Clearfield, will conduct a week service in Grace Lutheran church, this place, commencing with tonight. Meetings will be held each night during the week, Saturday night being excepted. Mr. Hauser is a minister of considerable literary ability and it will be a pleasure of the people of this community to attend these services and hear him discourse on themes of the bible and genuine religion.

A regular wintery snow storm visited this region on Friday night and continued all day Saturday. Taking the fall entire there was almost twelve inches came down. There was a small or two Saturday night and folks arising on Sunday morning noted the ground was covered by two or three inches more. Out in sections west and north of Curwensville people report considerable more snow than what had fallen here and in the valley. The snow fall of April 14th, 1923, will be remembered for years to come, but it is not the only event to be kept in mind, as it was on the 14th day of April, 1865, that the greatest President of these United States, Abraham Lincoln lost his life by assassination, at the hands of Wilkes Booth.

A Memorial Service pamphlet, issued by the members of the adult department of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School in memory of the life work of two departed members, Mrs. S. C. Watts, who died October 24, 1922, and James Caldwell Bloom, who departed this life January 10th, 1923 is out in print. The pamphlet, among kind words said of the deceased is a song by a quartette, the singers being Messrs Geo. E. Croyle, John D. Haines, R. K. Way and Lynn Daugherty, entitled "My Savior First of All," a paper read by Mrs. M. A. Caldwell, a member of Mrs. Watts' class, entitled "We Too Weep." The quartette "Pilot Me Home," by Mrs. Watts, "Inured Into Life," by Mrs. Nettie Ferguson. Then an "Eulogy of James Caldwell Bloom," by N. D. Shroy, a paper worthy of mention. Then follows several pages written by S. C. Watts. The words in this little moment of Christian comradeship are not in comprehensible of meaning to the writer as he was acquainted with the life work of both of the departed, and every bit of word is contained within the pamphlet and of twelve pages are just and true. "Sleep or ashrined and sainted dead,

Pure as the love you gave,
No impious footsteps ere shall tread
The heibag of your grave;
Nor shall your memory be forgot,
While Hope her record keeps,
Or honor points to the hallowed spot
Where a true Christian sweetly sleeps."

William Edmiston, who is connected with the brick yard at Woodland, came over Sunday to inspect his new sister and hold converse with Curwensville friends.

Raymond Sires, formerly a foreman at the brick yard here, now holding down a similar position in one of the Clearfield yards, came up Saturday evening for a visit with his parents and see what some of his former fellow workmen were doing.

Thursday, the 19th, has been designated as "Patriots Day" and also, usually speaking, a legal holiday. Would it not be well if the different departments of our public schools would lay, as do the usual line of school work at this time and substitute in place a general line of patriotism in its full meaning. No doubt the lessons included would prove an everlasting benefit in years, that will follow the pupils through life. Individual patriotism as learned from the date of the Revolution to the present time, cannot help but be interesting to the average school pupil of today.

How many people are there in Curwensville today who can vividly recall what important event took place on April 12th, 1861? It was at that time the first shot of the civil war was fired, and at Fort Sumpter, the cause of which eventually one of the greatest epochs in American history has been written.

Bill's Dandy has about finished the job of getting the machinery at the tearing Run stone quarries in workable condition: both at the loading wharf and in the mountains where the stones are hauled out of the earth and made ready for the cutters. If favorable weather conditions prevail his plant will start operations in less than the next ten days, as several orders for stone has already reached the office in this place.

William Peoples had occasion to shoot a valuable dog which belonged to one of his sons on Saturday forenoon. The dog showed all signs of rabies, and when the animal broke from its chain Mr. Peoples thought it about time to kill it, for fear that in running across the canal would bite some one in his neighborhood.

and that on the 14th of April, 50 years ago the snow was a trifle over one foot in depth; that John Anderson,

A number of Curwensville men who are connected with the hunting lodge, called, "Greenwood Camp" about five miles out on the mountain, packed up kits and went out there on Saturday, ostensibly for the purpose of being on the trout streams at an early hour Monday morning.

Mrs. Lottie Murphy, on Grampian road, is reported as being ill at her home.

Dick Moore has purchased the Ashley McDowell property in Pike township, but within less than a quarter of a mile of the borough line. The purchase includes the dwelling house and out buildings and three adjoining lots. The purchase price was $4000. Mr. Moore expects to obtain possession of the property about May 1st, or possibly a little sooner if matters can be arranged.

Landlord John Fox is disposing of the furniture, etc., at the Park House prior to his removal from that hostelry, about May 1st, after which time the new purchaser of that block, James Richards, of Mahaffey, will take possession.

George Anderson, fire warden and road supervisor of Pike township was in town Saturday. Talking about news this late in the season, he gave out this information and swears that it is correct as he secured the data from some old books kept by his father, Jno Anderson, at the time. His father, Reuben Hall, Joseph Boast, John Appleton, Joseph Bailey and

Will Anderson, hauled a raft of timber on the 14th day of April from the "flat rocks" and landed the same on the river bank at the Leah Bloom farm. Ira Shaffer comes forward also and states that 61 years ago on the 14th of April, the family that he was living with at the time moved on sleds from the old Logan grist mill to the Chas Goodwin place, and there was plenty of snow on the ground with which to do it, without striking mud or gravel.

The writer was a little premature Saturday in sending Mr. Wm. Ten Eyck back to his Missouri home. The fact of the matter is he did not start on his return to the west until today and was very reluctant to make the start at that. "Willie" was a mere cub when he was taken to Missouri by his parents but while growing up in the wild and woolly, he heard his folks talk a great deal off and on about their old home back in the mountains of the far West and thus eradicated a memory to want to see Curwensville and the mountaineers who in his mind carried long barrels, rifles and wore whiskers down to his eyes.

After every meal, the opportunity to visit our town presented itself at last with me, until my day's come to an end in the states of my forced adoption, (not meaning of course that old Missouri is not good enough ground for any one to be proud of) If I am permitted to grace this earth a few years longer, I am coming back and bring my family with me for them to see what I have seen and shake the hands that I have been permitted to shake in a true and not a make believe friendship. May we all meet again. Verily, yea.

As to Misfortunes
If all men would be as their misfortunes together in one place, most would be glad to take their own home again, rather than to take a proportion out of the common stock.

Driven member of clutch weighs less than 3 1/2 lbs.

Why Jewett never "stalls,"
"jerks," nor clashes Gears

YOU can change gears in a Jewett as fast as you can move your hand—or as slowly as you please. No "clash" is heard—and you never "miss." You can even drop from "high" to "second" at 30 miles an hour. Let up the clutch pedal as fast as you can. Move your foot, and Jewett neither jerks nor kills its motor.

Such superb handling ease comes largely from the new Paige-type Jewett clutch. Its driven member weighs less than 3 1/2 pounds, one-third the usual weight. So it stops spinning instantly—adjusts itself to speed changes quickly—helps you change gears. And the six clutch springs instead of one, and twice the friction surface of the ordinary clutch, give the smooth, gradual engagement which prevents jerking or motor stalling. Please try Jewett's ease yourself.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

Glasses Must Fit the Eyes

Glasses which do not stay in an optically correct position before your eyes are not only troublesome but are apt to cause further injury by straining the eyes.

Our glasses are made to fit and stay fitted. One of the principal reasons for their doing this is that we have the best modern devices for making them. For instance, this little machine drills the holes in the lenses by means of which they are fastened to the mounting and it is so delicately designed that these very important holes can be made absolutely exact.

DRINK MORE MILK—DO MORE WORK

This is especially the case with men who work at so-called head-work all the time.

There is no work more fatiguing than brain work—no work that drains the vitality more.

Drinking milk—and plenty of it—is the best thing that you can do to overcome the strain.

And when you drink our milk you are getting the purest milk that you can get anywhere. It comes from farms where they take the best of care of the milk, and then we put it through the pasteurization process.

Be Sure To See The Feature Demonstration

Barmon Dresses have Four Famous Features which will be demonstrated at our Store during the course of this Sale. Every woman who is interested in dresses of better fit, greater comfort and longer service should see this demonstration.

By buttoning two tabs, concealed beneath a smart panel at the back of the dress, the size of the garment can be so altered to perfectly fit any and all types of figures.

Under-Arm-Shields are tailored into these Dresses and provide practically double service at these points, which all women know are first to wear out on ordinary dresses.

If it becomes necessary to lengthen the skirt, due to tall figures or shrinkage, you need only pull a tacked which releases a two-in-one concealed tuck. No restitching necessary.

Every Barmon Dress is provided with two Menders of Dress Material which are fastened to the inner part of the garment. Torn or worn places are quickly and neatly repaired with these Menders.

All sizes from 16 to 18 and 36 to 56 are included in this Sale—in more than 50 Smart models—and phone or mail orders will be promptly filled.
